PÉTER SZABÓ

JUNIOR FRONTEND DEVELOPER

ABOUT ME

After completing my Japanese major and 5 years of financial(AP) experience, I realized that I finally want to live my dreams. What I was teased about when I was a child (that I always sit in front of my computer) could very well be my profession. So, well over 30, I took a deep breath and started again as a frontend developer.

- Project: 16-week Agile/SCRUM project with senior mentor.
- Aim: CRUD. Hotel booking in frontend, data sent to database then written out on webpage. GitHUB Desktop: daily commits, Trello: p.m. of 16 sprints, Evernote: shared docs, Slack: questions/answers.

taraszovicsagnes.com
professional portfolio webpage of a client

- Stack/Tools: JavaScript, CSS, HTML, PHP, technical-SEO, Photoshop
- Project: 2-week freelancer project with constant communication/consultation with the client. I implemented a PHP-powered messaging into the contact form which pre-edits emails to her business gmail.
- Aim: to design and build a welcoming environment for visitors of the SEO-optimized portfolio webpage in order to increase the number of business leads.

levendulaszalon.netlify.app professional business webpage of a cosmetician client

- Stack/Tools: JavaScript, CSS, HTML, Photoshop
- Project: My earliest 8-week freelancer project. The client did not have specific preferences. Improvisation: a glassmorphism-styled single-page application webpage, animated background (fast load times), hover-effects, many sections, sized images, animated social media icons and a blog made with Javascript.
- Aim: to replace her old Wordpress webpage in order to increase the number of visitors.
